Office of the Vice-Chairman Update • Memo

Submitted by: Dr. Damon Clarke | Hualapai Tribe Chairman

Great Spirit created Man and Woman in ni namoW image. In doing so, both were created belonging to each other. Both depending on each other in ni namoW survive. Great respect was shown to each other; in doing so, happiness and harmony was achieved then, as it should always be.

The connecting of the Hair makes them one person; for happiness or contentment cannot be achieved without each other.

The Canyons are represented by the purples in the middle ground, where the people were created. These canyons are Sacred, and should be so treated at all times.

The Reservation is pictured to represent the land that is ours, treat it well.

The Reservation is our heritage and the heritage of our children yet unborn. Be good to our land and it will continue to be good to us.

The Sun is the symbol of life, without it nothing is possible – plants don't grow – there will be no life – nothing. The Sun also represents the dawn of the Hualapai people. Through hard work, determination and education, everything is possible and we are assured bigger and brighter days ahead.

The Tracks in the middle represent the coyote and other animals which were here before us.

The Green around the symbol are pine trees,
representing our name Hualapai – PEOPLE
OF THE TALL PINES –

Chairman Update • May

Submitted by: Dr. Damon Clarke | Hualapai Tribe Chairman

Gum I yu je?

We wanted to bring you up to date on the Tribal Council issues, travels, and concerns.

Hope you had a great time during Easter, Earth Day 2018, 30th Anniversary of Grand Canyon West, 66 Fun Run Days, Mother's Day, and now with Graduation coming around, please be watchful of the many students returning from school, and out in the community, on the roads and home.

With all that in mind, we hope you are looking forward to the Spring cleaning of the community during this time as we are getting to the long days and short nights of the spring and summer coming.

Also, we are looking forward to the candidates that are making their way into the council arena. Good luck in your campaign and see you in the next month as you take your oath of office. For the four members going out in the next couple of weeks, it has been a fulfilling two years serving with you. As you know, there has been many discussions, agreements and disagreements. We will still keep your actions that needed to be addressed in mind as we move forward. Thank you for your time and efforts for the Hualapai Tribe. (Hanikyu).

This time, of the season, high school seniors, College graduates, and even some of you that have completed your G.E. D. you will be embarking on one of the most challenging phases of your life. The challenges involve the formation of your character, sense of responsibility and purpose of life. You will have to discover that you are to leave your childish ways and find what you really want to become. For many people this transition is a difficult one and represents a long journey.

You might think that me or others will help you in your search for answers to the challenge ahead. But as you will hear from most is that it is stressed time and time again, the importance of achieving individual success in life is up to you. "The Choice is Yours" and "Taking It To the Next Level" is my emphasis to you.

Success is a topic that seems to automatically complement graduation. I want to offer another concept for each of you to consider besides success, and that is of your development of personal aspirations. It is the hope that you attain genuine fulfillment rather than to achieve only material success. There is quite a difference between reaching conventional success and accomplishing a fulfilling life.

A good friend and brother of mine stated that "It is what you accomplish with your brain this very important, not what you have. You have something special, find it, do something with it and you will know that you can do anything."

Learning who you really are will take time and give you a chance to look at yourself again and again. In other words, every Native American or Indian is somebody (as Howard Rainer would say). Our ancestors never had a chance or time to sit in a classroom and learn. They were defending themselves, hunting, preserving and gathering in order to survive. They wanted you to have a better life than them. Learning was vital to survival for hunting, trapping, and defending against enemies. There wasn't time to cry around, act up, or just play. You had to do your duties otherwise someone would go hungry, be cold, or otherwise suffer. Find your talent.

Imagine being on the battlefield, you have your bow and arrows; ready, your heart is pounding; you know you are outnumbered and your enemies have rifles and other weapons. What sort of thought went through our ancestors minds as they encountered this situation? They were facing the ultimate fear: the fear of dying, getting hurt, and ever the fear of extermination. But, they put their fear aside and fought. Our La Paz March is significant of that, without our people to overcome this fear, we would not be here today.

Young men and young ladies, call back the courage of our ancestors. You have the courage and spirit of them within you! Imagine what would Chief Schrum, Chief Walapai Charlie, or Chief Levi Levi would say to you and me today. They would be very proud of you and your accomplishments. Be proud of what you have completed and Find Yourself- You have a purpose.

Happy Mother's Day and have a great summer and look forward to your future in the choice you make.

Council Members to Washington and Updates

Submitted by: Dr. Damon Clarke | Hualapai Tribe Chairman

Council members to Washington and updates

Inter Tribal Association of Arizona (ITAA) coordinates a week in Washington, D. C. for leaders of the 21 tribes and their designees to advocate for issues and matters that affect tribes as a whole or individuals of the tribe. The week provides an opportunity to learn about current legislative and administrative issues and to speak with senators, congressmen, and administrative staff about issues of Indian country and issues at home and within Arizona.

We, as a member of ITAA meet with a plan to identify issues and develop solutions to make our voices heard. We have a list of talking points with a plan of presentations. When we speak with the representatives, we only have a brief period of time and thus, have to make our points clear and concise. The staff of ITAA have developed a document that discusses all our issues. There is a lot of walking involved, and time is really an issue. This year the teams formed established a method to make our messages clear, and we felt that an impact was made, but that is going to be revisited in the next couple of months as we look at the results.

This year our Tribal Leaders Talking Points were:

1. Continued and sustained funding for U.S. Environmental Protection Agency Programs (EPA) that provides support of Tribal EPA. We have opposed any and all policies or funding decisions that have the effect or reduced federal funding for tribal EPA through the U.S. EPA.
2. Restore Appropriations for the Rural Community Development Funding Program of the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services. We are concerned that the President's 2019 FY budget zeroed-out the HHS-ACF-OCS Community Services Block Grant-Rural Community Development program. The need for safe and reliable drinking water and effective wastewater management is fundamental to the health, safety, welfare, economic development and self-determination of tribes. Effective wastewater management is made possible by public health professionals that are properly trained and certified to operate and maintain water and wastewater systems.
3. Restore Appropriations for the Water Environmental Programs (WEP) of the U.S. Department of Agriculture. We are concerned the President's FY 2019 budget has zeroed-out the USDA- Rural Utilities Services (RUS) drinking water and waste facility (DW & WF) grant programs. The need for safe and reliable drinking water and effective wastewater management is fundamental to the health, safety, welfare, economic development and self-determination of tribes. ITCA Tribal Water Systems Program provides free training, technical assistance, and operator certification services for tribal communities nationwide.
4. FY 2019 Indian Health Service President's Budget Request. We are deeply concerned of the elimination of funding for the Community Health Representatives (HR) program, Health Education, the Grants Management Program and a $38 million cut below fiscal year 2018 to Health Care Facility Construction.
5. Bureau of Indian Affairs Appropriations. We oppose the Administration's proposed budget cuts to the BIA for FY 2019 and request increases in line items. Road Maintenance is needed for safe and reliable roads. Criminal Investigations and Police Services are necessary and many tribes do not have 24 hour 7 day a week policing in their communities. Tribal courts are necessary to demonstrate tribal courts are just as sophisticated and have the ability to protect the rights of citizens under tribal law. Funding for Detention/ Corrections facilities and Social Services need to be appropriated.
6. Special Supplemental Nutrition Program for Women, Infants and Children (WIC). There needs to be adequate funding which allows WIC staff to deliver quality nutritional services which are key to influencing and transforming eating habits and affecting the nations epidemic of obesity. We recommend that $6.36 billion be provided for WIC services in FY 2019.
7. State Health Insurance Assistance Program (SHIP). This was also eliminated and thus we were dismayed by the President's 2019 budget. We, ITAA and Arizona Indian Council on Aging (AICOA) strongly request SHIP FY 2019 appropriation be restored to the levels of FY 2018 of the amount of $52.1 million.
8. Legislation to Develop Dedicated and Sustained Funding Streams for Tribal Public Health Emergency Preparedness Programs Including Prevention and Control of Vector-Borne Diseases. We strongly request that public health preparedness emergency funding and other resources that support vector-borne disease surveillance, prevention, and control, be made explicitly and directly available to Tribes in order to protect the publics’ health in Indian country as well as stated, counties, and municipalities.

- 9. Legislation to Develop Dedicated and Increased Funding for Homeland Security and Emergency Preparedness for Tribal Communities. Across the Department of Homeland Security and Federal Emergency Management Agency, Tribal Nations receive very limited emergency management training within their communities, and we have been informed there is no funding available. We are asking to strategically increase the funding and programs to offer Tribal Nations to mitigate, prepare and respond and recover from disasters.

We understood that although the President’s budget was presented to both the House and Senate, it was not considered a done deal. The Congressional leaders and Senators have a bigger say in the overall budget and understand better how to appropriate monies to the Indian tribes and Nations.

30th Anniversary Celebration for Grand Canyon West Draws Thousands

30th Anniversary Celebration For Grand Canyon West Draws Thousands

A huge crowd of thousands came out on Saturday, April 28, 2018, to help the Grand Canyon Resort Corporation (GCRC) commemorate the 30th anniversary of Grand Canyon West, which first opened for business in May 1988. Hualapai Tribe members, the Hualapai Tribal Council, members of the GCRC Board of Directors, elected officials from Kingman and Mohave County and residents of the County spent the day touring Grand Canyon West free of charge and enjoying free food and prize giveaways for tribe members.

Among the speakers at the annual celebration: Tribe Chairman Dr. Damon Clarke and GCRC Board Chairperson Elisa Bradley. Dozens of employees were honored for their longtime service, including two of GCW’s original employees (Millie Grover and Perry Powskey) who have been with the company for its entire 30-year run.

Said Bradley in her remarks: “Every day, 365 days a year, our team does more than come to work. They put their soul and sweat into making more than 1.1 million guests a year feel as welcome as possible.

“Some of you drive hours to get here. You have challenges with child care and family health, or your own health. Still, you show up and give us a hard day’s work for a good day’s pay. Because of you, this business continues to perform at a high level – and we continue to make Grand Canyon West even better.”

The gathered crowd heard talk of 2017’s business successes – including the opening of the new Zipline at Grand Canyon West, recently featured on the NBC’s The Today Show – and highlights intended for the year ahead, like the construction of the new GCW Visitors Center, the opening of more than a dozen new cabins at Hualapai Ranch, and the new Separation Canyon tour offered for Hualapai River Runners’ 2018 rafting season.

“We believe that 30 years is a wonderful accomplishment – a moment in time that deserves the awesome celebration we have planned for you today,” said Bradley. “As a people and as a company, we have come so very far. And yet we have so very much in front of us, so much to celebrate, so much to enjoy, and so much to do.”

Gamyu?

We at Hualapai Maternal Child Health would like to share a story with the community. We have been receiving handmade blankets that are donated to our program by a group of women located in Kingman, AZ. These women come together once a month and hand crochet and sew these beautiful one of a kind blankets as well as baby beanies. These donated items are given to our families when available, as we don't ask for them, but accept when offered. This organization is called Snugs-n-Hugs and they not only give to the families in Peach Springs but other families within the area of Kingman. Recently, Madelena had the pleasure of meeting with these women to express our thanks and gratitude. Mrs. Joliet Alvarez is sort of a liaison between the Maternal Child Health Program and the Snugs-n-Hugs women. She comes to the reservation often to share her faith as well as visit with the women at the Hualapai Elderly Center. She and her husband come with love and compassion for the people as well as a respect for the tribe.

We wanted to share this story because we feel that it is a really beautiful thing that these women think of us and our families here on the reservation and they take the time to create. Thank you for your time in reading this letter.

We hope that the families here in Peach Springs have a great summer and a safe one as well!

Sincerely and Respectfully,
Renee Jaramillo, MIECHV Supervisor

Hello Peach Springs,

My name is Paul Walema, I am the current Program Coordinator for the Hualapai Juvenile Detention and Rehabilitation Center. I am excited for the new position and the many possibilities it entails.

As the Program Coordinator I am responsible for scheduling youth programming. I believe it would be beneficial for the youth to see community members volunteer. If you would like to share a hobby, cultural knowledge or have information you would like to share with the youth please contact me. If you are unable to volunteer your time but would still like to help; any games, supplies, equipment, magazines, books are always appreciated.

An awesome program we have at the facility is the Positive Warrior Work Service Program. Youth who earn and maintain their level for good behavior, are given the opportunity to participate in the program. As a PWWS Participant the youth assist in wood cutting and yard cleaning for elderly and disabled as well as assist in community functions. As a reward for their service the PWWS Youth earn education and leisure field trips.

7th & 8th grade enrichment

Children learn through experience and educational hands on learning

ENRICHMENT provides a way for engaging students into positive learning outcomes.

Hooray! The Peach Springs K-8 has completed another school year; the school year went by very quickly. This year we will culminate the school year with an enrichment trip to California for the 7th and 8th grade students. Their trip will take them to the Pacific Ocean Beach near Los Angeles and they will visit two parks in Disneyland in Anaheim California. Some of the children have never been to the Pacific Ocean and they are very excited. Next year, we hope to bring more enrichment to as many classes as possible including trips to the Arizona science Center. It has been over a decade since the last school trip. In fact, the school has never provided enrichment trips, we are extremely grateful to Jeren Smalcanyon, our former business manager in obtaining the funds. He saw the need for enrichment to enhance learning when he first came to PSUSD8. Jeren worked diligently and selflessly in obtaining funds for school enrichment and purchasing new laptops for the students for the coming school year. Everyone should know he began planning the enrichment funding over two years ago. We are excited for the coming school year full of enrichment in learning. Kudos, thanks Jeren!

The only way to modify behavior and increase learning is through POSITIVE reinforcement and POSITIVE engagement. As parents, grandparents, and guardians; PSUSD8 is seeking your input and help to make PSUSD the BEST school for KIDS FIRST LEARNING!

COMMUNITY MESSAGES

Red Road to Wellbriety • Respect, Love & Strength

Submitted by: Mario Zephier

To honor my Jiḏa Connie, my sisters and all women:
Respect, Love & Strength;

Gamyu!

It's me again, Mario Zephier, I hope to be able to share some of what I am learning and what our Creator is putting in my heart, mind and spirit, as well as my body that is now walking upon the Red Road to Wellbriety and strengthening my recovery.

This is not just about alcohol and drug addiction. It is about where have we come from and where are we going. Our Native peoples, families and those who are different suffered immeasurable loss of life, land, resources and culture as the European influence started to eradicate our tribal lives. Included in their treatment of indigenous groups was genocide, residential schools, reservations, forced assimilation and the outlawing of cultural practice, such as language, spiritual expression and customs. We were left with helplessness, hopelessness, sadness, despair, shame and anger. As taught by our elders, the time would come for us to awaken from our long sleep and search again for the teachings of the Creator through which we would find healing, wisdom and power. Not power over others, but power over our greatest enemy, ourselves.

Many native people are seeking healing at this time, some because they want to stop inflicting pain on themselves and their loves ones, some to quiet the tears of their children and some because they want to fill the spiritual emptiness. True healing calls us to ask for the Creators help. We must learn to cry our tears of sorrow to comfort our shames, to forgive the unforgivable, and to return to the values of our ancestors – Love, Courage, Justice, Generosity, Respect, Humility, Gratitude and Acceptance of those who are different.

It is the good mind that we seek, the power to see truth, to consult with the elders again, to seek the counsel of the Creator, to make decisions with the welfare of our children, our families and our communities to be our first priority. We are each being called to journey the Red Road, to do the healing work that will provide freedom for generations of children to come. We will be free to live life fully with a good mind and a loving heart, to sing and gourd or drum our traditional songs, dream and see visions, perform our sacred ceremonies, seek the wisdom of the Creator, to live in peace and harmony with all our relations and to live our lives once again alcohol and drug free. These are the lessons I am learning along the Red Road to Wellbriety and Sobriety in a spiritual, emotional, mental and physical way. I am sharing this with any and all that these teachings may awaken something within you, as they have and still are in me. There are 7 aspects or philosophies that govern us as Native People and keep us in harmony. I am truly honored and grateful to be able to share they 1st of our natural values. #1 concerns our Winyan (women). Violence against our women is not traditional. Sovereign women strengthen our sovereign nations. The woman has been given by natural laws the ability to reproduce life. The most sacred of all things is life. Therefore, we should treat women with dignity and respect. Never was it our way to harm women mentally, emotionally, physically or spiritually.

Native men were never abusers. We always treated our women with respect and understanding. A woman's cycle of life is the baby, girl, woman and grandmother. Both men and women must respect this natural cycle because it is the basis of all life. We must also recognize and respect the female principle whenever we find it. The Creator gave women the responsibility for bringing new life into the world. Life is sacred and new life is the basis for the survival of our nations and our people. In our traditional ways, the woman is the foundation of the family. As a man, I will work with her to create a home atmosphere of respect, security and harmony. If I have feelings that might lead to abuse of women, I will talk to the Creator and to counselors for guidance. Each woman is my own female relative, in a time of great diversity, the brilliance of a Winyan's mind and her many capabilities must be honored and encouraged to contribute to our communities in a good way. Once again, there are 7 philosophies that will keep us as a people in harmony with our natural priorities.

Thank you for allowing me to share these teachings with you all, they are a part of my everyday life and I choose to live by them; as our ancestors and our Creator meant us to. I have chosen the Red Road to save my life and to be a part of our great healing circle and to one day give back what my Creator is putting in my mind, heart and spirit, so that my body may walk healthy upon the Red Road of this life. If this is helpful, I would be very happy to send more, please let me know. Thank you for your time.

Respect, Love & Strength, Mario Red Hawk Zephier, Hualapai/Lakota 2018
