COVID-19 Vaccines: Get the Facts

Looking to get the facts about the new COVID-19 vaccines? Here's what you need to know about the different vaccines and the benefits of getting vaccinated.

Vaccines to prevent the coronavirus disease 2019 (COVID-19) are perhaps the best hope for ending the pandemic. But as the U.S. Food and Drug Administration (FDA) begins authorizing emergency use of COVID-19 vaccines, you likely have questions. Find out about the benefits of the COVID-19 vaccines, how they work, the possible side effects and the importance of continuing to take infection prevention steps.

What are the benefits of getting a COVID-19 vaccine?
COVID-19 can cause severe medical complications and lead to death in some people. There is no way to know how COVID-19 will affect you. If you get COVID-19, you could spread the disease to family, friends and others around you.

Getting a COVID-19 vaccine can help protect you by creating an antibody response in your body without your having to become sick with COVID-19.

A COVID-19 vaccine might prevent you from getting COVID-19. Or, if you get COVID-19, the vaccine might keep you from becoming seriously ill or from developing serious complications.

Getting vaccinated also might help protect people around you from COVID-19, particularly people at increased risk of severe illness from COVID-19.

What COVID-19 vaccines have been approved and how do they work?
Currently, several COVID-19 vaccines are in clinical trials. The FDA will review the results of these trials before approving COVID-19 vaccines for use. But because there is an urgent need for COVID-19 vaccines and the FDA’s vaccine approval process can take months to years, the FDA will first be giving emergency use authorization to COVID-19 vaccines based on less data than is normally required. The data must show that the vaccines are safe and effective before the FDA can give emergency use authorization.

Pfizer/BioNTech vaccine
The FDA has given emergency use authorization to the Pfizer/BioNTech COVID-19 vaccine. Data has shown that the vaccine starts working soon after the first dose and has an efficacy rate of 95% seven days after the second dose. This means that about 95% of people who get the vaccine are protected from becoming seriously ill with the virus. This vaccine is for people age 16 and older. It requires two injections given 21 days apart.

Moderna vaccine
The FDA has given emergency use authorization to the Moderna COVID-19 vaccine. Data has shown that the vaccine has an efficacy rate of 94.1%. This vaccine is for people age 18 and older. This vaccine requires two injections given 28 days apart.

Both the Pfizer/BioNTech and the Moderna COVID-19 vaccines use messenger RNA (mRNA). Coronaviruses have a spike-like structure on their surface called an S protein. COVID-19 mRNA vaccines give cells instructions for how to make a harmless piece of an S protein. After vaccination, cells begin making the protein pieces and displaying them on cell surfaces. Your immune system will recognize that the protein doesn’t belong there and begin building an immune response and making antibodies.

Can a COVID-19 vaccine give you COVID-19?
No. The COVID-19 vaccines currently being developed in the U.S. don’t use the live virus that causes COVID-19. Keep in mind that it will take a few weeks for your body to build immunity after getting a COVID-19 vaccination. As a result, it’s possible that you could become infected with the virus that causes COVID-19 just before or after being vaccinated.

What are the possible side effects of a COVID-19 vaccine?
A COVID-19 vaccine can cause mild side effects after the first or second dose, including:

- Pain, redness or swelling where the shot was given
• Fever
• Fatigue
• Headache
• Muscle pain
• Chills
• Joint pain

You’ll likely be monitored for 15 minutes after getting a COVID-19 vaccine to see if you have an immediate reaction. Most reactions happen with the first few days after vaccination and last no more than three days. If you experience side effects after getting a COVID-19 vaccine, it doesn’t mean that you have COVID-19. Take time to rest and recover. If you develop a fever, stay home. However, it’s not necessary to get a COVID-19 test or quarantine.

If you have a reaction that prevents you from being able to eat, sleep or work, contact your doctor. Also, contact your doctor if you have a reaction that lasts longer than three days.

Signs of an allergic reaction include hives, swelling of the face and throat, difficulty breathing, a fast heartbeat, dizziness, and weakness. If you have any of these signs, seek care immediately.

How are the COVID-19 vaccines being distributed?
Due to limited supplies, not everyone will be able to get a COVID-19 vaccine right away.

The Advisory Committee on Immunization Practices (ACIP) is a U.S. federal advisory group made up of medical and public health experts. The ACIP has recommended that in the first phase of vaccination in the U.S., COVID-19 vaccines should be given to health care personnel and adult residents of long-term care facilities.

The ACIP has also recommended that the next group to get a vaccine in the U.S. should include people age 75 and older and frontline essential workers, such as first responders, teachers and public transit and grocery store workers.

The third priority group recommended to get the vaccine in the U.S. includes people ages 65 to 74, people ages 16 to 64 who are at high risk of severe COVID-19 due to underlying medical conditions and all other essential workers, such as those working in food service and construction. Examples of underlying medical conditions include type 2 diabetes and severe obesity.

Related information

COVID-19: Who’s at higher risk of serious symptoms?

Can I get a COVID-19 vaccine if I have a history of severe allergic reactions?
If you have a history of severe allergic reactions not related to vaccines or injectable medications, you may still get a COVID-19 vaccine. You should be monitored for 30 minutes after getting the vaccine.

If you’ve had a severe allergic reaction to other vaccines or injectable medications, ask your doctor if you should get a COVID-19 vaccine. If you’ve ever had a severe allergic reaction to any ingredient in a COVID-19 vaccine, the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention recommends not getting that specific vaccine.

If you have a severe allergic reaction after getting the first dose of a COVID-19 vaccine, don’t get the second dose.

Can pregnant or breastfeeding women get the COVID-19 vaccine?
There is no research on the safety of COVID-19 vaccines in pregnant or breastfeeding women. However, if you are pregnant or breastfeeding and part of a group recommended to get a COVID-19 vaccine, you may choose to get the vaccine. Talk to your health care provider about the risks and benefits.

Is there anyone who should not get a COVID-19 vaccine?
There is no COVID-19 vaccine yet for children under age 16. Several companies have begun enrolling children as young as age 12 in COVID-19 vaccine clinical trials. Studies including younger children will begin soon. COVID-19 vaccination might not be recommended for people with certain health conditions. Talk to your doctor if you have questions about getting the vaccine.

Should I get the COVID-19 vaccine even if I’ve already had COVID-19?
Getting COVID-19 might offer some natural protection or immunity from reinfection with the virus that causes COVID-19. But it’s not clear how long this protection lasts. Because reinfection is possible and COVID-19 can cause severe medical complications, it might be recommended that people who have already had COVID-19 get a COVID-19 vaccine. If you’ve had COVID-19, wait until 90 days after your diagnosis to get a COVID-19 vaccine.

Can I stop taking safety precautions after getting a COVID-19 vaccine?
Experts want to learn more about the protection that a COVID-19 vaccine provides and how long immunity lasts before changing safety recommendations. Factors such as how many people get vaccinated and how the virus is spreading in communities will also affect these recommendations.

In the meantime, the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention recommends following these precautions for avoiding infection with the COVID-19 virus:

- Avoid close contact. This means avoiding close contact (within about 6 feet, or 2 meters) with anyone who is sick or has symptoms. Also, keep distance between yourself and others. This is especially important if you have a higher risk of serious illness.
- Wear cloth face coverings in public places. Cloth face coverings offer extra protection in places such as the grocery store, where it’s difficult to avoid close contact with others. Surgical masks may be used if available. N95 respirators should be reserved for health care providers.
- Practice good hygiene. Wash your hands often with soap and water for at least 20 seconds, or use an alcohol-based hand sanitizer that contains at least 60% alcohol. Cover your mouth and nose with your elbow or a tissue when you cough or sneeze. Throw away the used tissue. Avoid touching your eyes, nose and mouth. Avoid sharing dishes, glasses, bedding and other household items if you’re sick. Clean and disinfect high-touch surfaces daily.
- Stay home if you’re sick. Stay home from work, school and public areas if you’re sick, unless you’re going to get medical care. Avoid public transportation, taxis and ride-sharing if you’re sick.

If you have a chronic medical condition and may have a higher risk of serious illness, check with your doctor about other ways to protect yourself.

The Covid-19 Vaccination is an important tool to help stop the pandemic

01 The safety of the vaccines is top priority
The U.S. vaccine safety system ensures that vaccines are as safe as possible. The two FDA approved Covid vaccines have been tested on over 74,000 people. The vaccines are found to be safe and 94–95 % effective 02 Facts about the vaccine.

- The vaccine will not give you Covid-19, there is no live virus used in vaccine
- The vaccine will not cause you to test positive on a covid-19 viral lab test
- Getting vaccinated can help prevent getting sick with Covid-19
- People who have gotten Covid-19 may still benefit from getting the vaccine
- The vaccine will not alter your DNA

03 Side effects that have been reported include but are not limited to: pain at injection site, redness or swelling at injection site, tiredness, headache, muscle pain, chills, joint pain, fever, nausea, swollen lymph nodes, allergic reaction

04 How long until I’m protected?
- Two doses are required and will be scheduled 3-4 weeks apart.
- You may not be fully protected until 1-2 weeks after your second dose of vaccine

Mohave County Department of Public Health

Good afternoon Mohave County. We’d like to share information about the Vaccine Distribution Phases. DISCLAIMER: This information changes rapidly and we will do our best to give you the latest information available. Information is subject to change.

PUBLIC HEALTH BULLETIN COVID-19 VACCINE*
Updated December 21, 2020

In coordination with the Arizona Department of Health Services COVID-19 Vaccination Plan, our planning efforts include involvement from hospital and healthcare systems, emergency response agencies, federally qualified health clinics, pharmacies, community-based organizations, and others. The role of different partners in vaccine distribution will depend on vaccine supply and the stage of the vaccine distribution plan. Updates will be provided as more information becomes available about COVID-19 vaccine.

A Phased Approach

CDC guidance in the COVID-19 Vaccine Interim Playbook describes a phased approach to distribution. Because there is likely to be a limited supply when vaccine first becomes available, CDC will direct what groups are prioritized based on their risk levels. The first phase (1A) of vaccine distribution will include healthcare workers and long-term care facility residents and staff.

The second phase (1B) will include healthcare workers not included in 1A, adults in congregate settings, law enforcement, teachers and childcare workers, and essential services/critical industry workers.

The third phase (1C) includes any adults aged 65 and older, and adults of any age with high-risk medical conditions.

*DISCLAIMER: Distribution groups and timelines of phases shown are tentative. This information is subject to change due to future vaccine distribution guidance recommendations, FDA approval of vaccines, and vaccine allocation/availability. We will update the information as it becomes available.

The Great Spirit created Man and Woman in His own image. In doing so, both were created as equals, both depending on each other in order to survive. Great respect was shown for each other; in doing so, happiness and contentment was achieved then, as it should be now.

The canyons are represented by the purple in the middle ground, where the people were created. These canyons are sacred, and should be so treated at all times.

The Reservation is pictured to represent the land that is ours, treat it well.

The Reservation is our heritage and the heritage of our children yet unborn. So good to our land and it will continue to be good to us.

The Sun is the symbol of life, without it nothing is possible - plants don’t grow - there will be no life - nothing. The Sun also represents the dawn of the Hualapai people. Through hard work, determination and education, everything is possible and we are assured bigger and brighter days ahead.

The trees in the middle represent the crops and other animals which were here before us.

The green around the symbol are pine trees, representing our name Hualapai - PEOPLE OF THE TALL PINES.

Indian Education Committee

Our annual Impact Aid application must be submitted by January 31. In order to keep everyone safe and still have our Indian Education Committee meeting, this year’s meeting will be a virtual meeting. It will be held online this Thursday, January 7, at 12:30 pm. If you would like to participate, please send Mr. Angle an email (mr.angle@valentineaz.net). Include any topics you would like discussed during the meeting.

You will receive a reply email with a link to the Zoom meeting. You may use your student’s device. Please connect a few minutes early. The meeting is scheduled to conclude by 2pm.

If you would like to participate, but cannot do so virtually, contact the school so we can attempt to make appropriate accommodations. We will have to be creative this year regarding our Indian Education Committee meetings given the current situation. If you have questions, concerns, suggestions, etc., about the educational programs here at Valentine Elementary, you are encouraged to contact the school.

SCHOOL IS IN SESSION

We very much appreciate the Incident Command Team’s efforts in transporting school materials to and from students’ homes. We are still operating a regular in-person schedule but are making accommodations for students who cannot attend on campus.

Our buses will continue to run morning, kindergarten drop-off, and afternoon routes. If you would like to transport your student, we can provide you with a letter to facilitate travel through the checkpoint.

Report cards for 2nd quarter will be sent home with students on Thursday. For distance learning students, contact the school and we can make arrangements for you to pick them up or have them delivered through a different means.

How Can I Help My Student?

- Keep safety a top priority – As glad as many of us are to see the calendar turn to 2021, the reality is that there is still plenty to do to keep ourselves and everyone else safe. Continue to encourage your students to follow all of the safety procedures.

- Distance learning – We completely understand if you need to keep your student at home during this time. If that is the decision, make sure to follow through with your student that learning still must go on, even if they are not physically attending the school building. We will provide the materials, but students will still need to do the work. The school is still responsible for issuing grades and keeping students accountable for their learning.

- Work with your students at home – Even reading with your students for 15 minutes each day has been shown to have positive effects on their learning.

"Due to the collapse of the health system, we, the health professionals have prepared this message for the people. In case, you do not want to risk going to the hospital immediately.

Symptoms appear from the 3rd day after infection (viral symptoms). First phase: Body ache, eye pain, headache, vomiting, diarrhea, running nose or nasal congestion, decomposition, burning eyes, burning when urinating, feeling feverish, scuffed throat (sore throat). It is very important to count the days of symptoms: first, second and third.

Be careful. It is important to drink plenty of fluids, especially purified water. Drink plenty of water to keep your throat moist and to help clear lungs.

Second phase (from 4th to 8th day): Inflammatory.
Loss of taste and/or smell, fatigue with minimal effort, chest pain (rib cage), pain in the lower back (in kidney area). The virus attack nerve endings: the difference between fatigue and shortness of breath: lack of air is when a person is sitting without making any effort—and is out of breath. Fatigue is when the person moves around to do something simple and feels tired.

It takes a lot of hydration and Vitamin C, COVID-19 binds oxygen, so the quality of blood is poor with less oxygen.

Third phase: Healing
On day 9, the healing phase begins, which can last until day 14 (convalescence). Do not delay treatment, the sooner the better.

It is better to keep these recommendations, pre-
Sit in the sun for 15-20 minutes, rest and sleep for at least 7-8 hours, drink 1.5 liters of water per day, all food should be hot (not cold), keep in mind the pH of the Coronavirus ranges from 5.5 to 8.5. So all we have to do to eliminate the virus is to eat more alkaline foods, above acid level of the virus, such as:

- Bananas, lime → 9.9 pH
- Yellow lemon → 8.5 pH
- Avocado → 15.6 pH
- Garlic → 13.2 pH
- Mango → 8.7 pH
- Mandarin → 8.5 pH
- Pineapple → 12.7 pH
- Watercress → 22.7 pH
- Oranges → 9.5 pH

How do you know if you have COVID-19? Itchy throat, dry throat, dry cough, high temperature, difficulty breathing, loss of smell and taste.

While The Peach ordinarily doesn’t award a Volunteer of the month in December, (we move right on the Volunteer of the Year.) staff decided it was warranted THIS unprecedented year. We consider this to be an honorable mention of sorts, or perhaps something like a lifetime achievement award. Willow Majenty, Peach Springs community and Hualapai Tribal member joined the KWLP volunteer DJ crew in 2017. She has always been an enthusiastic and reliable participant at the station - hosting her show “Rock Out Hour” and assisting with events and more! It has been our pleasure to watch her blossom! During the pandemic, she has made a point to come in whenever possible to pre-record her shows for the times of stay at home and lock down orders. Unfortunately, her Tuesday show has often been pre-empted by the COVID-related, live special Council meetings. We want to be sure she knows that we really appreciate her effort and dedication! If you get a chance, please let her know you do too! Willow will receive $100 in incentives as Volunteer of the Month!

Revised 07/07/20
The Great Spirit created Man and Woman in his own image. In doing so, both were created as equals. Both depending on each other in order to survive. Great respect was shown for each other; in doing so, happiness and contentment was achieved then, as it should be now.

The connecting of the Hair makes them one person; for happiness or contentment cannot be achieved without each other.

The Canyons are represented by the purples in the middle ground, where the people were created. These canyons are Sacred, and should be so treated at all times.

The Reservation is pictured to represent the land that is ours, treat it well.

The Reservation is our heritage and the heritage of our children yet unborn. Be good to our land and it will continue to be good to us.

The Sun is the symbol of life, without it nothing is possible - plants don’t grow - there will be no life - nothing. The Sun also represents the dawn of the Hualapai people. Through hard work, determination and education, everything is possible and we are assured bigger and brighter days ahead.

The Tracks in the middle represent the coyote and other animals which were here before us.

The Green around the symbol are pine trees, representing our name Hualapai - PEOPLE OF THE TALL PINES.
